

Growing the Beaver Scout Section

This tool can be used in small groups to identify what could help us to grow (driving forces) and what are currently preventing us from growing (restraining forces). Action is the key to success – identifying tangible things that we can work on.

