
December/January Supplement

Due to an error in the print stage of the magazine, an order form for new Scout Section resources, available from February 2008, did not appear.

The advert is attached to this special eNews as a PDF file. Please forward this to all adults involved the Scout Section in your County/Area.

As mentioned in the last Scout eNews, the Scout Office is here to answer all your questions about the programme refinements and support you locally in implementing the changes. Please contact Elis at elis.matthews@scout.org.uk or 020 8433 7125.

Challenge 100 Live!

Congratulations to the many Patrols of Scouts who participated in Challenge 100 Live! at Live 07 at the O2 Arena. They captured the spirit of Challenge 100 perfectly, cooking, dragon boating, aviating, handshaking, snapping and puzzling their way to success in front of a Scouting audience of 25,000 avid onlookers. This almost spells the end of Challenge 100 in our Centenary year, and we'd like to thank everyone who took part and made it a challenge to remember. Thank you!

www.scouts.org.uk/scouts

This is still the place for Scouts to go to get information on the Scout Section Programme and interact with other Scouts through their own photos, stories and videos. Updates are coming in the next few weeks as the badge requirements are put into a new, easy-to-read format. Spread the word!

Small Actions ... Big Change!

Leaders in your County/Area may have missed the competition currently on the Scout website. This is an opportunity for Scouts to come up with ideas for actions that will change the world for the better if a million people were to do them.

The winning idea will be performed by one million people on a campaign day organised by We Are What We Do, the people who wrote the book Change the World for a Fiver.

Go to www.scouts.org.uk/changetheworld to find out more, and please pass the message on to your contacts in all the under 18 Sections. Young People have until the end of 2007 to enter.

Specialist Advisers (Sea and Air)

We are currently recruiting two positions to support Alasdair in advising on Sea Scout and Air Scout matters. Please go to <http://www.scoutbase.org.uk/hq/jobs/volunteer.htm> for more information. Please spread the word to anyone you think may be suitable for the role(s).

Finally...

Thank you for reading (and circulating) this special edition of Scout eNews. If you have any ideas that you feel would make future issues even more helpful, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Have a happy Christmas!
