

5.5 Scout Fellowship Buyers Guide

The following resources are available from the Scout Information Centre at Gilwell Park on 0845 300 1818.

The Scout Fellowship File

A resource for new and existing Scout Fellowships - everything you need to know!

Policy, Organisation and Rules (POR)

POR defines the structure, training and administration to help you get the greatest help and support from your Group, District, etc

Wanted – Recruiting Adults: A practical guide (Adult Support Resource)

An essential guide to effective adult recruitment, including, clearly defining the role, finding the right person and keeping them.

Supporting Adults – A Toolkit for Scout Groups (Adult Support Resource)

A DIY kit for the Scout Group to build a resource pack and process to welcome, induct and integrate any adult into the Group. Only the local information needs to be added.

Supporting Adults When They Are New (Adult Support Resource)

This book explains the Adults in Scouting Model by using a simpler model – ‘select, do and review’. Each section of the model is explained in detail.

Guidelines for Administrators (Adult Support Resource)

Job Descriptions, best practice ideas and guidelines to support the Group Chair, Treasurer, Secretary and Group Supporter.

Valuing People: The Review Process (Adult Support Resource)

This booklet helps you through the review or evaluation, reassignment, retirement and renewal steps of the Adults in Scouting Model, and answers questions like ‘why review, when to review, and how to review?’

Activity Authorisations Factsheets

These leaflets explain how to carry out adventurous activities safely – rules, guidelines, and how to get authorised. These cover Hill Walking and Mountain Biking, Climbing and Abseiling, Water Activities, Caves and Mines, Air Authorisation.

Getting Noticed (Venture Scout Resource)

Although written for the Venture Scout Section, this resource gives practical ideas and strategies to help raise awareness of your Fellowship and help with recruitment, by using the local media.

Getting Started (Venture Scout Resource)

Again, although originally written for the Venture Scout Section, this disc will help you create an effective personalised Welcome Pack for new members.

Scouting Magazine

A monthly magazine containing useful news, views and ideas – including pages aimed at Adult Support and the Scout Fellowship.

Information Centre Resources Catalogue

Listed under the relevant Sections of Scouting, this catalogue provides details, prices and reference numbers of factsheets, worksheets, booklets, posters, cards, books and manuals regarding training for leaders and the everyday running of the Group, Section, etc.
